Cori Greig jets to her Alaskan coastal home for summer break and lands smack between the ex-boyfriend and her incredibly handsome white water rafting guide. Seth impresses her with his sensitivity and compassion for the beautiful and still unprotected white whales in the sound. And he knows all about the upcoming hunt. Cori, reaching out for one baby Beluga can't believe anyone would hard this gentle creature. Seth shares her compassion, yet his obsession is a little crazy, maybe even scary. Cori struggles to believe the best in Seth for the sake of that one baby snow-white whale. Her first love, Dark, seems oh-so-sincere, but then again, he always did. His opinions and offers of help are suspect from the first. Just because he can lead a shamanic journey doesn't make him loyal. Cori can't quite believe in either of them. The trickster, raven, may be her totem, but she feels like the only one who is ever fooled.
