From middle-class suburbs to a full body massage parlor. Two years after being attacked, Kate McKenzie knows she cannot pretend it never happened. Her husband blames her for the assault and refuses to touch her. Rather than venture out, she spends her days in self-induced confinement. Drawn in by the promise that she will be the one in control, Kate answers an ad for a full-body masseuse. Only when she encounters Christian, an artist, who paints her, does she find the confidence to seduce her husband and finally confront the truth about herself. Content warning, this title contains explicit sex and adultery.
