Catchy hooks and rock-purist, kick-ass beats are the bedrock for their very human themes of everyday life, love and frustration. Lead singer, Lorna Dowell, tells the story in a unique vocal style reminiscent of Chrissie Hynde and Bif Naked, while guitarist, Biman Bharadwaj, along with Jim Doyle on bass and Dean Walsh on drums lay down some of the most unapologetic, straight ahead crunch we've heard in a long time. Altered State, a very satisfying combination of the old and the new, is definitely fresh and ready for prime-time" - Skip Adams, Emmy nominated sound editor, owner, Global Graffiti Music. Altered State, a band with a signature sound and soul, who consistently capture an audience and rock relentlessly with a live show that sonically sings, no artificial hype, bullmake or fluff. The Altered State track, "Let Me In", is included in the Tim Daly/Clark Mathis production "Bereft", which is currently showing on various channels in the US, Canada and internationally. The movie was recently licensed by Echo Bridge Entertainment for distribution. Altered State is always working on new material that further showcase the band's signature sound and are in the studio again.
